25X1 15. [redacted] [redacted] (OSR) and John S. Warner met with Jim Gehrig, Staff Director, Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, for approximately an hour. [redacted] briefed Gehrig in considerable detail on what we knew concerning the recent Moscow Air Show. Mr. Gehrig said he might like to have Senator Anderson and Senator Smith briefed on this at a later date. 25X1

25X1 16. [redacted] Talked with Mr. Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and briefed him on the recent negotiations concerning the building occupied by the National Student Association. He had no particular concern with this. He also indicated that the DOD Appropriations bill might go to the floor this coming Friday but it was more likely it would carry over until next Thursday.

25X1 17. [redacted] Met with Congressman William Bates who was interested in the progress of a young man whom he had referred to the Agency some time earlier for employment. The individual's name was [redacted] who was hopeful of an assignment to Europe. I said I would look into this one discreetly. 25X1

25X1 18. [redacted] Talked with Mr. Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and briefed him on the recent negotiations concerning the building occupied by the National Student Association. He understood the situation and had no particular concern.
